

Lesson One: Third John

1. What did John call himself? To whom did he write? In what did John love him? v. 1
2. What did John wish for Gaius? v. 2. Why did John rejoice? v. 3
3. What gave John great joy? v. 4. How did Gaius conduct himself? Toward whom? v. 5
4. What witness was borne concerning Gaius? Before what? What was Gaius to do? v. 6
5. Why was Gaius to aid others? v. 7. Why should "we" receive such? v. 8
6. Unto whom did John write? Who did not receive John? What did that man love? v. 9
7. What would John remember? When? What was Diotrephes doing? v. 10
8. What should Gaius not follow? What should he follow? v. 11
9. Who is of God? Who hath not seen God? v. 11
10. From whence did Demetrius have a good report? v. 12
11. How did John wish to convey the rest of his message? vs. 13,14

12. Thought Questions

- A. How was Gaius' health? What did John mean by "...as thy soul prospereth"?
- B. How was the truth "in" Gaius? What gave John great joy? Why?
- C. How was Gaius being a fellowhelper to the truth?
- D. Describe Diotrephes. What was Diotrephes' main problem?
- E. What did Diotrephes do when he "...casteth them out of the church"?
- F. What should have been done with Diotrephes?
- G. Should a congregation ever reject anyone? Why?
- H. How can a man have a good report of the truth?
- I. How was Demetrius different from Diotrephes?
- J. What should we learn from III John?